The Second Circuit, however, reversed Abrams's ruling in October 2020 and reinstated Archer's fraud conviction.[936][937] Unsurprisingly, Archer petitioned[938] the SCOTUS to review the Second Circuit's reversal, but the court did not[939] grant Archer's petition, so, Abrams—whose husband[940] Greg Andres[941] just happened to be an Obama DOJ appointee and prosecutor on Robert Mueller's Special Counsel team—was put in the awkward position of sentencing a defendant[942] to whom she granted a new trial. Although Archer was sentenced[943] to one year and one day in prison in 2022, he is being resentenced in August 2024 due to a technical error. Archer has likely wondered why Joe has not issued a commutation.

Mr. Archer did.

So, Mr. Archer, please rise for the imposition of sentence.

It's the judgment of this Court that you be committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of one year and one day, to be followed by a term of supervised release of one year on all counts to run concurrently.
