VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

Geoghegan Properties was a trust account set up many years ago by my [redacted] The beneficiaries were my [redacted], and me. In 2020, my [redacted] decided to dissolve the fund and distribute individual stocks to the two of us. This was done, and I failed to recognize this transition and report the individual stocks on my 2020 Disclosure Report. This is now being corrected.

Line 99. This line number is a duplicate of Line 82.

Line 117. Date of Purchase - 1/17/19. Purchase Price: $292,809.00.

Line 325 is correct.

As to Property #37 and your inquiry, I inherited this property in 2008, and I cannot recall why this was listed on the 2022 report exactly as it was in earlier years. The only income I receive from this property is from a hunting lease, and the amlunt I receive is $953.34. Obviously, this was some type of error, the details of which escape me. I have changed the report to indicate that the only revenue I receive has been identified as rent, which, in fact, is my portion of a hunting lease. This property is owned one-third (1/3) by me and two-thirds (2/3) by others.

Line 312 is correct.
