VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

The annuities listed on lines 8 through 26 were acquired by Kenmare Assignment Company which is a deferred compensation account. While in private practice I deferred compensation, and Kenmare purchased the listed annuities with the deferred compensation. I am unable to sell the annuities or otherwise control them, and I have listed the annunities acquired by Kenmare in an abundance of caution. Income form the annuities is invested by Kenmare; I cannot control how Kenmare invests the proceeds, and I am guaranteed a monthly payment for a fixed number of years. After deferring the compensation for ten years, I have begun receiving payments in the amount of $17,500.00 per month, as listed in Part III of this report. I have a second deferred compenaation fund (OptCapital) which I have listed on this disclosure. OptCapital invests the deferred compensaiton in various securities, and I am unable to direct which equities, bonds or other financial instruments are acquired by OptCapital. In past years, I listed every security OptCapital purchased for transparency. For example, in my 2020 report, I disclosed equities on lines 81 thourh 180. Those equities are purchased by Morgan Stanley who conducts investment strategies for OptCapital. Since I cannot direct OptCapital to instruct Morgan Stanley how to invest the deferred compensation, and since my control is limited to a risk tolerance (high, medium, or conservative), I am not required to list the specific equities purchased by OptCapital or at its direction. Accordingly, I no longer list specific equities held by OptCapital.

In Part VII, Investments and Trusts, I do not identify income during the reporting period for the OptCapital deferred compensation fund, because I have not elected to receive disbursements from the fund.
