VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

Regarding Part V ("Gifts"): Nicholas and Koren Dreher have been friends of mine for many years. (Now retired, Nicolas Dreher was my law firm partner before I became a judge.) They are supporters of the Hawaiian Humane Society and, as a donation, purchased a table at that charity's annual fundraiser for a higher price than would have been charged to me had I purchased a single ticket. I and my significant other were invited to be guests seated at the Drehers' table. (I am certain I would not have been invited except for my relationship with my significant other, who had a longer and closer friendship with Nicholas Dreher than I had and who, unlike me, had been the Drehers' guest at this fundraiser in prior years.) I contacted the Committee on Financial Disclosure about whether the reportable value of the ticket for my seat was the pro rata share of the generous donation amount, or was what would have been charged to me had I bought myself a single seat. The Committee opined that I should report the former, regardless of whether I did or did not notice any "upgrades" over a regulary priced table. The value I list for my seat is approximate (there was a donation range associated with the table I sat on).
